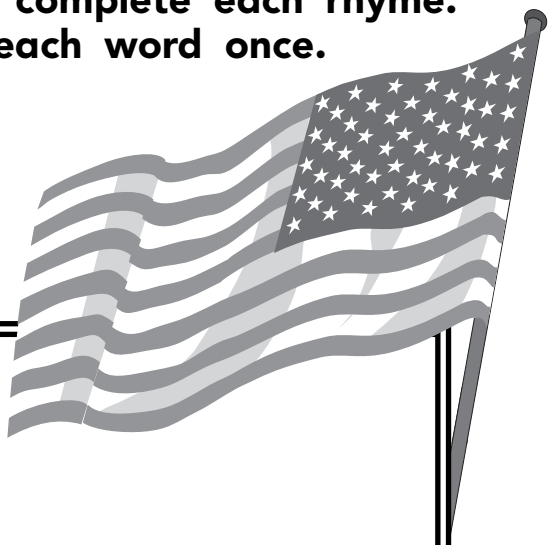
A Poem About the Flag

Choose a word from the Word Box to complete each rhyme. Then write the word on the line. Use each word once.



Word Box
blue	stop	tall	bright	white

The Flag

By Samuel A. Southworth

Waving at the pole's tip top
Is a flag to make you _____.

Running across, left to right,
Stripes of red and of _____.

In the corner, clear to view,
Stands a field of darkest _____.

In that field, as in the night,
Stars stand out, pure and _____.

Taken together, for one and all,
It's the American flag, standing _____.

SCHOLASTIC

Courtesy of Scholastic Classroom Magazines.
Copyright © 2001 by Scholastic Inc. Permission granted to reproduce for classroom use only.