

Booktalk!

Night of the Howling Dogs

Written by Graham Salisbury

Booktalk!

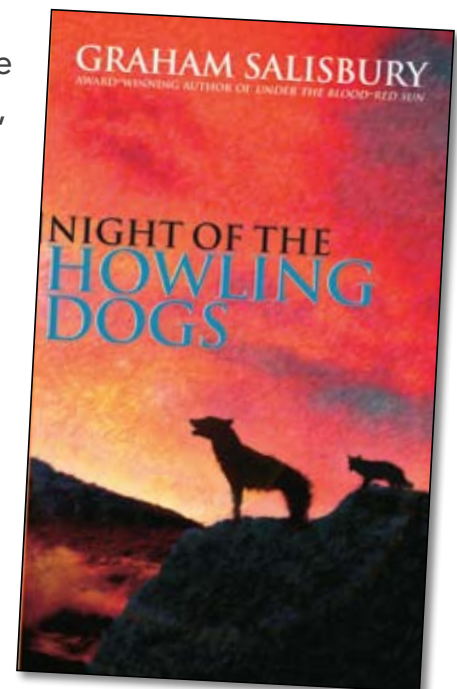

Many of you probably like to go camping with family and friends, so you will understand how excited Dylan and his scout troop are when they begin their camping adventure near a remote volcanic park in Hawaii.

The only problem is that Louie, a new kid who joined the troop right before this trip started, is coming along. Dylan and Louie have history together ... and it isn't good.

The hike to the "crack" is treacherous. They have ample supplies but have to be very careful about dehydration, as the Hawaiian sun is powerful.

During their first night in camp, Dylan hears a dog howl, then another. The boys assume they are wild dogs. Little do they know the howls are warnings about danger.

This edge-of-your-seat adventure mixes mystery with Hawaiian legend and terrifying natural events to create a story that grips you until the last page. You will never forget Dylan and Louie and the courage it takes to survive the camping trip of the howling dogs.

Best for grades 6 and up