Ben's got the skills to be the starting quarterback ... just not the size. It's Shawn, the coach's son, who gets that spot. Shawn has been groomed his whole life for the position, but he doesn't have the heart for the job.

There's a lot of pressure to make every play perfect, and when that fails, Shawn and the team suffer. A quarterback needs the ability to make the right plays every time. Ben has a plan to help the team, but there's a lot on the line with Shawn and the coach. Will Ben be the quarterback who can save the team?

Best for ages 8-12
