The Ghost of Graylock

by Dan Pablocki

Booktalk!

Pond weed in the bathtub. Puddles on the floor. A mysterious girl with wet hair sitting at the foot of the bed. Ever since Neil and his sister, Bree, broke into the old insane asylum, they've been getting strange signs. Someone – or something – followed them home and won't leave them alone.

Legend has it that a demented nurse drowned three children in the lake there. One of them has a message for Neil and Bree. Something truly horrible did happen to her at Graylock, and she'll torment them until they figure it out.

Best for ages 10–14
