Booktalk!

Azalea has waited all her life to attend the annual royal Yuletide dance, but tragedy strikes and she and her 11 sisters are trapped, forbidden to dance for an entire year.

The Keeper is also trapped within the confines of the palace and understands the girls' predicament. He extends an invitation that allows the sisters to enter an enchanted forest where they can dance in secret.

But everything has a cost, and Azalea may find herself paying the ultimate price.
