Booktalk!

What would you do if you found a dog chained to a fence without food or water? Every day, Rusty visits a starving and injured dog that has been chained and abandoned. He tries to enlist the help of Animal Control, but when that fails, he and his friend take matters into their own hands and free the dog, taking it to a hideout.

Then Rusty is visited by a ghost collie that leads him to other dogs in need of help. The boys secretly house the rescues, but eventually more people get involved and the boys are faced with danger, threats, and deeper secrets.

Best for ages 10–14
