AWK!

Reading is FUN-damental!

by Bucko McSquawky

When I was a wee chick, me mum, Polly, read to me, which is why I'm a reading parrot today! The books I liked best were ones I picked out fer meself. Made me feel proud to own books of me own choosing. Treasure Island, o' course, was me favorite. Me mum knew if I did the picking, I'd do the reading. Smart parrot, was me mum.

But as a chick — before I could read — I learned to love books because of Polly. Many's the night we'd snuggle together on the roost and she'd squawk stories to me. I never fergot, and I read to me wee twin nephews now, Poe and Hawthorne, who like a good tale at bedtime. Look up to me, they do. Aye, this reading stuff is all found gold! And it's fun, matey, it's fun!

Yo-ho-ho, it's a barrel of fun,
To stick with a book 'til the readin' is done!

Why read? Why not? You get to travel anywhere in the world! Books introduce people of all ages to what is, what was, and what can be. Reading gives us wings!

With a good book and some imagination, you can fly, meet new people, dance and sing, plan, and, yes — learn! Books exercise our mental muscle, and are key to creating lifelong learners. Homes where books are available to kids are homes for learning. Remember my motto: Read and exceed!

Reading Makes Lifelong Learners

Find great books at your Scholastic Book Fair! Encourage reading and make your child a lifelong learner.
