

Contact:
Phone number:

One for Books benefits

You may notice a request for One for Books at the counter of your local sandwich shop or dry cleaners. Participating businesses include

This fundraiser for is part of our Scholastic Book Fair. The goal is to bring more books into schools at the local level and promote reading globally.

Every school that collects money through One for Books keeps all of the money raised. It is used to help students buy books and improve the school's library.

Scholastic Book Fairs will match the One for Books dollars you raise with a donation of up to a million books to three non-profit programs devoted to improving reading skills among children: Kids in Distressed Situations, National Center for Family Literacy, and Toys for Tots.

If you missed the opportunity to contribute through a local business, you can still make a donation at the Scholastic Book Fair at

