

Kindergarten Readiness Program Overview

Use this program to enhance kindergarten orientations, round-ups, registrations, reading nights, open house events, Book Fairs, and fulfill Core Standards and Title 1 parent involvement requirements.

Increase Family Involvement With the Kindergarten Readiness Program

This no-cost workshop helps families prepare their children for the transition into kindergarten. The program:

- Gives parents a proven, research-based approach to preparing their children for kindergarten.
- Includes an easy-to-facilitate set of program activities that are fun and engaging for parents and adult family members.
- Provides supporting planning materials for a site-based facilitator.
- Gives parents information and no-cost handouts explaining what is expected of children when they enter kindergarten, the pre-reading skills needed to learn to read, the importance of reading to children every day, and related activities parents can provide at home to support their children's reading and learning success at school.
- Comes with a Facilitator's Guide that brings you helpful ideas for planning your program.

The Facilitator's Program Kit contains:

- Helpful tips to organize your program
- Step-by-step information for a successful program
- A PowerPoint presentation and facilitator's talking points to support your presentation
- Reproducible invitation*
- Reproducible activities to entertain the children
