Writing Prompt

Think and Write

Directions: Read the Scholastic News Online article about kids raising money for earthquake relief efforts in Haiti ("Kids Helping Haiti"). Then respond to the writing prompt below. If you need more room, use a separate sheet of paper.

Before You Write
- ✔ Underline parts of the prompt that tell what you should do or answer.
- ✔ Draw an idea web or other organizer to plan your writing.

After You Write
- ✔ Check that you addressed all parts of the prompt.
- ✔ Check your spelling and punctuation.

PROMPT:

This story talks about several ways kids are helping to raise money for Haiti's earthquake victims. Which of their fundraising ideas do you like best? Why? Now think about your own school community. Describe a new and interesting way that your school community could raise money to help the people of Haiti. Tell what steps you would need to take to make your fundraiser a success.
