

Help Kids Soak up the Sun and Improve Reading Skills this Summer!

This summer, make playgrounds and pools the only place kids slide.

Research shows that students who don't read over the summer, typically score lower on tests when they return to school in the fall. However, reading four or more books during the summer break can keep reading skills sharp.

That's why Scholastic created these Read-4-Summer Book Packs. Each pack contains four grade-appropriate, kid-friendly books and information on entering our summer reading challenge. They are perfect for reading fun in the summer sun.

Get kids ready to participate in Scholastic's summer reading programs with these Summer Book Packs.

Visit Scholastic's Summer Challenge website at www.scholastic.com/summer! Kids Grades Pre-K-2 and their parents can access fun games and interactive activities and kids in Grades 3-8 can enter the exciting Scholastic Summer Challenge!

It's a free, online interactive site that places kids on teams with other readers from around the world and encourages them to read in order to score points for their team. All kids are reading for the Save the Children charity and the winning team helps decide which organization should receive an extra donation from Scholastic. It is a great motivator!
