The Story of Goldilocks and The Three Bears!
Read or tell the story of Goldilocks and The Three Bears to your children. This is one version of the classic story.

Once upon a time, deep in a forest lived a bear family. There was a great big Papa bear, a medium sized Mama bear, and a wee little Baby bear. Now, one morning, Mama bear made porridge for breakfast. The porridge was very hot. Papa bear said, "Why don't we take a walk in the forest while the porridge is cooling down." So, they went for a walk.

Along came a little girl, whose name was Goldilocks, walking in the forest. She saw the bears' house and was very curious about who might live there. So, she knocked on the door, but nobody answered. She smelled the porridge and decided to go inside.

She sat down and tasted Papa bear's porridge, but it was too hot. So, she tried Mama bear's porridge, but it was too cold. Then, she tasted Baby bear's porridge and thought it was just right and ate it all up.

She explored some more and saw three chairs. She sat in Papa bear's chair and thought, "This chair is too hard." She tried Mama bear's chair and thought, "This chair is too soft." So, she tried Baby bear's chair and said, "Oooh, this chair is just right." But, oops! She was too heavy and broke the chair. She stretched her arms and yawned and thought, "I'm feeling tired," so she looked for the bedroom. She laid on Papa bear's bed and thought, "This bed is too hard." She laid on Mama bear's bed and thought, "This bed is too soft." So, she tried Baby bear's bed and thought, "This bed is just right," and she fell asleep.

Meanwhile, the three bears decided to go back home to eat their warm porridge. When they came into the kitchen, Papa bear said, in a deep voice, "Somebody's been eating my porridge." Mama bear said, in a sweet voice, "Somebody's been eating my porridge." Then, Baby bear said, as he began to cry, "Somebody's been eating my porridge and ate it all up!"

So, they went into the living room and Papa bear said, in a deep voice, "Somebody's been sitting in my chair." Mama bear said, in a sweet voice, "Somebody's been sitting in my chair." Then, Baby bear said, as he began to cry, "Somebody's been sitting in my chair and broke it!"

So, they went into the bedroom and Papa bear said, in a deep voice, "Somebody's been sleeping in my bed." Mama bear said, in a sweet voice, "Somebody's been sleeping in my bed." Then, Baby bear said, as he began to cry, "Somebody's been sleeping in my bed and she's still there!"

Goldilocks heard the bears talking and woke up. She was so scared to see the three bears that she jumped out of Baby bear's bed, ran out of the bear house and all the way home. The bears never saw Goldilocks again.
