

CJ's Clues

An adjective tells about a noun.

loud noise

Adding the suffix ly to an adjective makes it into an adverb.

He yelled loudly.

What's at the bottom of these steps?
As we go down, circle the correct word in each sentence. Sometimes you'll need a word that ends in ly, but sometimes you won't.

Be (careful, carefully)!

Walk (soft, softly) down the steps.

Talk (loud, loudly) so I can hear you!

At times, our adventure has been (dangerous, dangerously)!

But we met some nice animals that were (helpful, helpfully) to us.

The lizard ran (quick, quickly), didn't he?

(Thankful, Thankfully) that hungry, pancake-eating lizard did not follow us.

(Lucky, Luckily) we got away from it before it wanted more to eat than pancakes!
