A ZOMBIE IN TROUBLE

I admit it. I am a zombie. My whole family are zombies. The living dead.

We died in a shipwreck 200 years ago. We are buried in a big crypt in the old cemetery two blocks from my school.

Yes, I go to school. John Adams Middle School. I enjoy school. I need to get out of the cemetery. Being dead is so boring.

The kids think I'm a weirdo. I guess because I look a little pale and strange, and I kind of stagger. But I have a couple of friends—Amy and William. And so far, no one has guessed my secret. Until today.

Our class is taking a field trip to explore the cemetery. I'm very worried. Some kids are wandering close to my family's grave. If they recognize my name and guess my secret, I will have no choice. I will have to ATTACK with all my fury.

Amy and William are staring at the grave. They are my only friends. But—I must protect my family. What should I do? What should I do?
