COCO-PUFF

Once there was a baby flying monkey named Coco-Puff. Coco-Puff worked very hard and was tired all the time.

His best friend was a girl named Molly.
Molly loved two things: eating bacon
and walking on her hands.

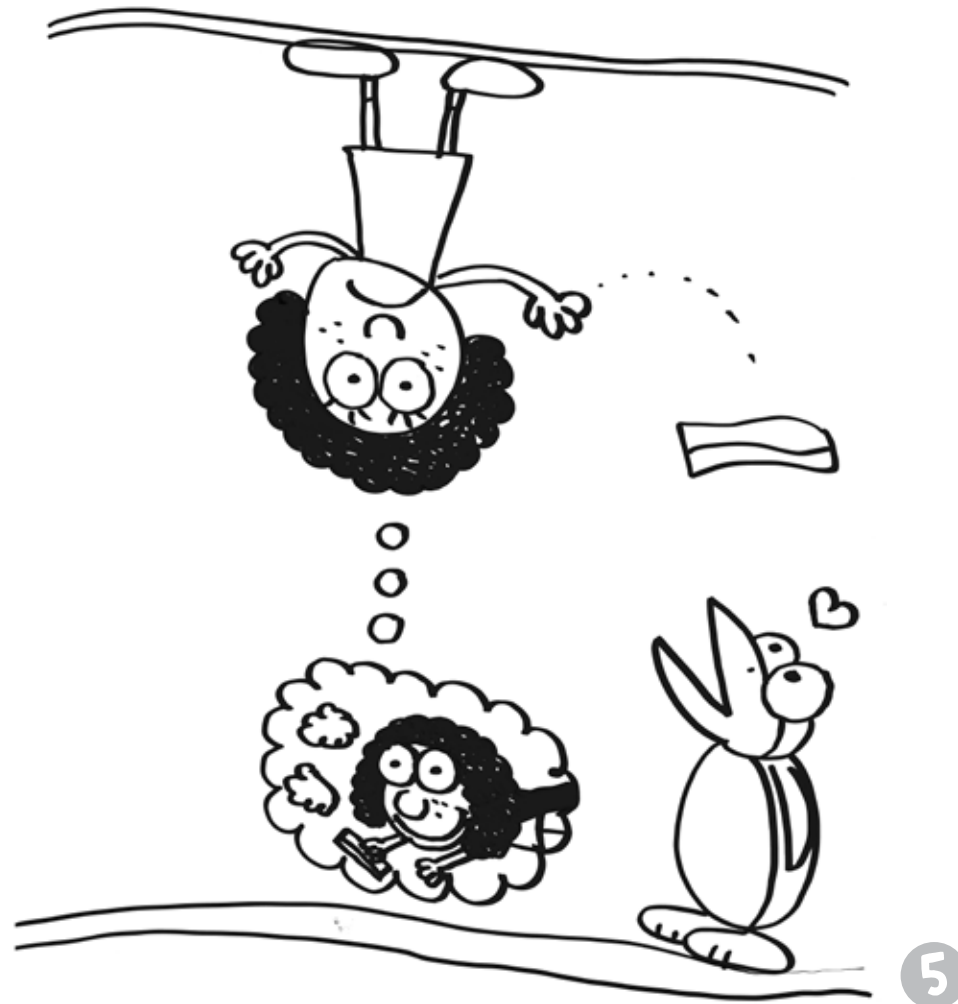

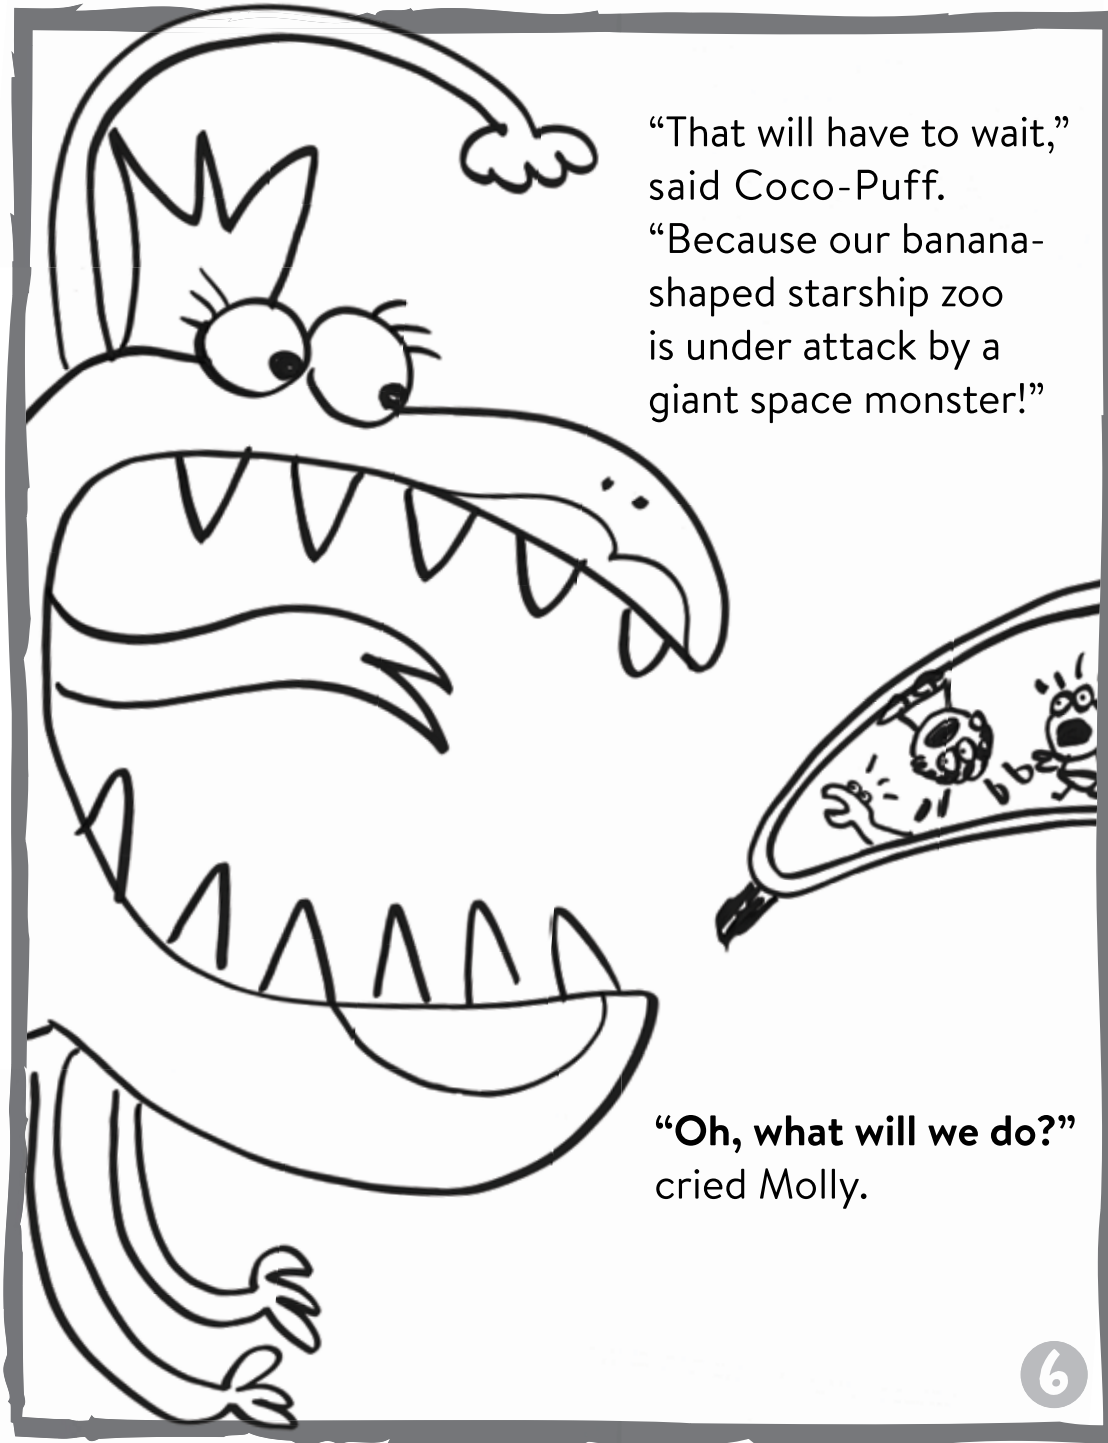

MOLLY

Molly and Coco-Puff worked together on a banana-shaped starship zoo in outer space.

Although Coco-Puff loved taking care of all the zoo animals, Molly secretly wished for more. “If I could only get back to Earth,” Molly said, “I could become the world’s greatest superhero! Then I could afford to buy all the bacon in the world. Mmmmm!”

“That will have to wait,”
said Coco-Puff.

“Because our banana-
shaped starship zoo is under attack by a giant space monster!”

“Oh, what will we do?”
cried Molly.
