Help Your Child Become a READER

READER: One who is passionate about reading

Illustration © 2020 by Peter H. Reynolds. Illustration © by Ben Clanton. DOG MAN™/® Dav Pilkey.
Steps to make your child a READER

RELATE
Help your child find themselves and their life within the books they choose.

ENERGIZE
Have lively dialogues about the books your child reads and plans to read.

ALLOCATE TIME
Make reading a part of your everyday routine.

DIVERSIFY
Introduce different genres (e.g., mysteries, biographies, sci-fi, etc.).

ENGAGE
Make it fun (e.g., help your child organize a local book club with peers).

READ TOGETHER
Participate by taking turns reading passages aloud.

SUPPORT
Provide your child access to books (e.g., build up your child’s home library).

Illustration © by Tedd Arnold. Art © by Raina Telgemeier.
How we help make your child a READER

Scholastic Book Clubs’ long, successful history and experience provide the BEST place to start!

• Each flyer offers a wide range of specially curated books for our class, with a focus on high-interest and just-right books!

• Each month, I’ll send home the flyer for our grade that’s filled with brand-new books and kid favorites!

• Plus every book order you place earns our class FREE Books and resources.
Ease of Scholastic Book Clubs Participation

1. BOOK SELECTION:
Browse through the flyers I send home and choose books with your child.

2. GO TO:
scholastic.com/bookclubs
And connect to our class using this 5-digit code:
___ ___ ___ ___

3. Our class order is delivered to me, and I will arrange to safely get the books to your child.

4. Join in your child's excitement for their new books.
Read together, ask questions, talk about characters.
HAVE FUN!