Name: __________________________________________
Date: __________________________________________

New Year’s Reading Resolutions: 2014

1. This year I plan to read ____________ books each month.

2. I will keep track of the books I read: (check one)
   ________ in a notebook.
   ________ in a reading journal.
   ________ other: ____________________________.

3. I will visit the library: (check one)
   ________ every week.
   ________ every other week.
   ________ every month.

4. A new series that I want to try this year is: ____________________________.

5. I will read books written by new-to-me authors, like: ____________________________ and
   ____________________________.

   Hint: Ask a teacher, classmate, parent, or sibling for a recommendation!

6. I will read books in new-to-me genres, like:
   ____________________________ and ____________________________.

   Hint: poetry, historical fiction, science fiction, fantasy, autobiography, biography, mystery, etc.

I will:
   ________ read at least two chapters or ten pages of each book before I leave it.
   ________ use self-monitoring strategies like connecting and questioning while I read to make sure I am understanding a text.
   ________ try to find the questions I have about what I read.
   ________ talk to people about what I read—what I liked, didn’t like, and wondered about.
   ________ other: ____________________________________________________________

signed: _________________________________________________________________________

created by Amy Mascott of teachmama.com for Scholastic