

Lesson 7*Antonyms

Read the following story. It doesn't make sense as it's written. Fix it by writing an antonym—or word with an opposite meaning—for each underlined word. The first one has been done for you.

Clark got up (1) late in the morning and got dressed for school. Then he went (2) upstairs and ate some breakfast. When his stomach was (3) empty, he grabbed his books and opened the (4) front door. It was very (5) hot (6) inside. He decided he needed a (7) light coat. Clark rode his bicycle to school, because it was a (8) slow way to travel. Clark arrived (9) after 8:30, but the school doors were (10) closed. He said (11) good-bye to his teacher. Then he (12) stood up and waited for class to begin.
