

Lesson 14Contractions

A contraction is a short way of writing two words.

An apostrophe stands for the missing letters.

- A. First, write the contraction that best completes each sentence. Then, write the two words that form the contraction.

1. I wish _____ (you'd, they're) join the dance committee.

2. We feel _____ (you'll, you've) be a real leader in planning!

3. The group thinks that _____ (we'll, we're) have the best year yet. _____

4. _____ (Weren't, We're) counting on you to join us.

5. _____ (I've, I'm) certain you really can help.

6. We _____ (can't, could've) take a vote until all the members are here. _____

- B. Underline the contraction in each sentence. Write the two words that it stands for on the line.

7. Where's the movie section of the newspaper? _____

8. Do you think you've got enough money for a ticket and popcorn?

9. Let's try to be on time. _____

10. We'd better hurry if we want to get good seats. _____

11. Dena doesn't like sitting in the back of the theater. _____

12. She'll be waiting for us inside the lobby. _____

Resource Links

1 RDI Book 1: p. 263

SAM Keyword: Contractions

Use with page 262.

