Student Printable: A Novel in Notes

Can you tell a story using only notes and letters between your characters?

First, choose or create two characters who will send each other notes and letters.

Character #1

Name:

Age:

Description:

Character #2

Name:

Age:

Description:

How do the characters know each other?

Next, decide what will happen in your story.

Are the characters writing about something in the past or present?

What happens to Character #1?

What happens to Character #2?

Then, plan the structure of the story.

Who writes the first letter?

What's in the first letter?

What's in the first reply?

Try to write at least five letters back and forth between your characters. Happy writing!
