

Name: _____

Date: _____

Directions: Choose a prompt to begin writing about your book.

E-Reading Response Prompts

- My favorite character was ____ because...
- My least favorite character was ____ because...
- My favorite part in the story was ____ because...
- I loved the way...
- As I was reading, I realized that...
- As I was reading, I was questioning why...
- I predict that...
- I was wondering why...
- I can't really understand...
- I noticed...
- I can connect to ____ because...
- I really identified with this character because...
- This reminds me of...
- ____ can be characterized as ____ because...
- The character I most admire is ____ because...
- I came across some cause and effect relationships in the text which were...
- The valuable lesson from this text was...
- This was a really interesting quote because...
- The author creates a _____ type of mood throughout the book by...
- This book is similar to...
- The theme throughout the story was _____, because...
- I think the relationship between ____ and ____ was interesting because...
- This story didn't end the way I thought it would since...
- This text detail reminds me of...
- If I could introduce a character from this book to my family it would be ____ because...
- As I was reading, it really bothered me that...
- I agreed/disagreed with the author about...
- If I were the author I would have changed the part of the story when...
- If I encountered the same problem as this character I would have...
- I think the solution was fair because...
- It seemed that the setting influenced the plot throughout the story because...