

Los Angeles Now

Volume 12, Issue 2

December 2004

Box Shop Creates Havoc in the Streets

Lines stretch into next county.

Raquel

Staff Reporter

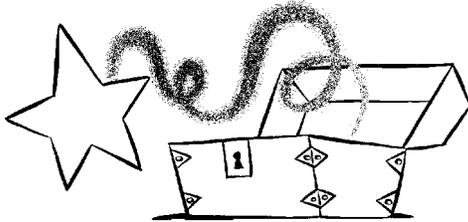

Lines were out of control on 5th and Main this morning as customers waiting for Pandora's Box Shop to open began banging on the store's windows, demanding that the store be opened (example of news lead).

"I just wanted a little box for my daughter for her birthday. When she opened it, all sorts of problems began in the house." Mrs. Jones told our staff reporter. Most of the customers felt that these boxes were somehow causing family problems.

Were they trying to return their boxes for a full refund?

"I want to buy one for my boss," one customer said, "because I want to get back at him for not giving me a raise last week."

Apparently not.

A sample of one of the boxes causing problems.

INSIDE THIS ISSUE

- 1 Headline News
- 2 Entertainment
- 3 Sports

Muscle Man Saves Family Vacation

Takes car out of ditch and sends family on their way.

Christine

Staff Reporter

"I thought our family vacation was over." Mrs. Brown told me (example of quote lead). Yesterday, her car flipped over on the freeway and landed in a ditch, trapping her family inside.

"Suddenly, out of nowhere, a man with the biggest muscles I have ever seen pulled our car out of the ditch." Mrs. Brown remembered.

The family was very frightened until they saw the large muscle man coming to their rescue. He pulled the car out without assistance from anyone. No one was seriously injured.

"There was no way that any tow truck would have been able to help us out. The kids kept thanking him and thanking him." Mrs. Brown said. "When we asked his name and where he was from, all he told us was 'Herky.'"

There have been several "Herky" sightings around the city, but no one has been able to take a picture of him until now. Some people just want to be heroes.

Muscle Man shows the family his stuff as they take-off.