

Name: _____

Date: _____

Typical Language Development Timeline

As you read through the timeline, fill in the blanks with milestones of your own language development!

AGE	TYPICAL LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT
Birth	Crying
6 Months	Responds to voices. Responds to friendly and angry tones.
12 Months	Uses one or more words. Understands simple instruction.
	MY FIRST WORD WAS
18 months	Has a vocabulary of approximately 5-20 words. Repeats a word or phrase over and over. Able to follow simple commands.
	WHEN I KNEW ONLY 5 WORDS, THOSE WORDS WERE PROBABLY THESE:

24 Months	Has a vocabulary of approximately 150-300 words Volume and pitch of voice not yet well-controlled.
36 Months	Handles three-word sentences easily. Has a vocabulary of approximately 900-1000 words. Understands most simple questions.

▼ (Time Line Continues on Next Page)

AGE	TYPICAL LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT
-----	------------------------------

48 Months	Knows names of familiar animals. Demonstrates understanding of over and under. Often indulges in make-believe ONE OF THE STORIES I MADE UP WHEN I WAS LITTLE WAS _____ _____ _____ _____ _____
-----------------	--

5 Years	Able to define common objects. Knows age. Uses long sentences.
---------------	---

6 Years	Speech should be completely intelligible and socially useful. Can tell a story about a picture, seeing relationships between objects and what is happening.
---------------	--

7 Years	Can tell time to the quarter hour. Can read and write many words. THE FIRST WORD I REMEMBER READING WAS _____
---------------	---

8 Years	Reading with considerable ease Carry on a conversation.
---------------	--

9 Years	Relate rather involved account of events. Develop time and number concepts. Develop slang. MY FIRST SLANG WORD WAS _____
---------------	--