

TURFMUTT'S STORY

I WASN'T BORN LUCKY.

I used to be just a scared little pup, living all alone on the street. I didn't have a house to sleep in, a blanket to curl up with, or a yard to play in. Then one day my dreams came true. I was found by a kind man who gave me a great home, a comfy blanket, AND a great name—Lucky!

Finally, I had a big yard to call my own. It was filled with green grass and clean air. The more I played outside, the stronger and more powerful I became. That's when I realized how important well-maintained green spaces are to everyone.

But I soon learned not everyone cares about their surroundings like I do. On a walk around my neighborhood I saw bad guys like CARBONCREEP, DUST DEMON, DR. RUNOFF, and HEATFREAK ruining the green spaces. I had to fight back! So that's when I put my blanket on like a superhero's cape and became TURFMUTT. I decided to use my powers to spread the word that we all need to work together. We have to stop the bad guys, and protect our turf.

But there's no way I can stop them all by myself, so I found some new friends who are a big help. They're the good guys who are specially equipped to help keep things cool and green—BIG ROOTY, WATER WARRIOR, THE OXYGENATOR, PROFESSOR BOTANY, and GREEN RANGER. Together we call ourselves THE OUTDOOR POWERS!
