

ALIGN Consider topics and texts from ELA and content areas, such as science, history, or health.

What topics do your students study?

What texts do they use to explore these topics?

REFLECT What can your students read, watch, or do to engage more deeply with the topic?
Try to gather authentic texts, or real-world texts, such as videos, poems, articles, short stories, or books.

READ

WATCH

DO

EXTEND

What vocabulary is important to build knowledge on this topic?

How can this information transfer to other topics or prepare students for forthcoming content?

What experiences would build additional knowledge?