

CAUSE-EFFECT AND INFER

Directions:

1. In the first column, in your own words, write one or more cause statements from your book; note the page that each is on.
2. In the middle column, note one or more effects.
3. In the last column make inferences about each cause-effect relationship; see the tip box.

Title and author of fiction text or biography: _____

CauseEffect*Infer*TIPS TO HELP YOU INFER USING CAUSE-EFFECT

From the cause-effect relationship you noticed, infer an unstated meaning that helped you better understand a character, setting, problem, or conflict.