

SYNTHESIS: HOW DOES THE CHARACTER CHANGE?

Directions:

1. In the first column, write down two or three personality traits that you observed in the character during the first two to five chapters of your book.
2. In the third column, describe how these traits changed or were replaced by others.
3. In the middle column, offer reasons for the changes. These could be words and actions of other people or the character's own experiences and feelings.
