

CREATE STORYboards

Directions:

1. Write down two to four important settings, one over each box.
2. Draw the setting in each box.
3. Under each box, write why the setting is important. Use these questions to stir your ideas:
How did the setting affect a character's feelings? How did the setting change what a character did? What the character said? What the character decided to do?

Title and Author: _____

