

My PROGRESS in READING

Directions:

1. Choose three areas you've worked on over the past several weeks.
 2. Jot down notes that show your progress and areas you need to work on.
 3. On the back of this sheet, turn your notes into three or four paragraphs that discuss your progress and how you plan to further improve your reading. Introduce your self-evaluation with a great topic sentence or short introduction.
- ◆ Name the reading strategy you've been practicing and discuss your progress in using it to help you understand your reading.
 - ◆ Reading Rate: Discuss how your independent and instructional reading have affected your reading rate.
 - ◆ Review your reading log and discuss your independent reading. Think about the genres and authors you enjoy and explain why. Evaluate the number of books you're reading. Discuss how you find these books.
 - ◆ Skim your journal entries and discuss how and why these have improved.
 - ◆ Discuss how your attitude towards reading has changed. Explain why.
 - ◆ How have conferences with your teachers improved your reading?
