R.A.F.T.S. PROMPT

You are Little Red, from Little Red and the Very Hungry Lion. Auntie Rosie needs your help. Her spots are gone, but she's still feeling quite tired. She'd like you to bring her some oranges from the All-You-Need General Store. Daddy wants to know the route you'll be taking from your house to Auntie Rosie's. After all, you never know whom you might meet along the way! Draw a map telling the story of what you will see first, second, third, next, and last on your journey. Label each thing in order, and don't forget to include your stop at the store. Use details in your pictures to make your map interesting. This might even be the start of a new story!
