R.A.F.T.S. PROMPT

You are a kid who has just moved into a new home. When you first saw where you would be living, it was nothing more than an empty house. Now that you've moved all your things in, it's become a special home that you love. In a story that you write for your cousin, describe one of the special things in your home. Tell why it's so important to you and how it made your new house feel like home.

Role: KidAudience: Your cousinFormat: StoryTopic: Something special in your homeStrong Verb: describe
