R.A.F.T.S. PROMPT

You are the starfish from the latest episode of Underwater World with Bob. You are puzzled, because in the last episode, all you heard Bob telling Shark was, "You ate me!" Thinking about it more, you realized that Bob never once told Shark how to be a friend. Maybe Shark doesn't know! You decide to make a list for Shark to explain how to be a friend. If he meets a new friend, hopefully that friendship will start off on the right foot...ummm, fin? Though you lost one arm (Thanks, Shark!), you still have enough arms to write with. Make sure the things on your list make sense and appear in the correct order. You want to encourage Shark to learn how to be a good friend...and to remember that friends just don't eat friends!

Role: The starfish
