R.A.F.T.S. PROMPT

You are an astronaut. This is your first space flight ever, and you're on a spaceship headed to the moon. It's your job to prepare a brief speech to update the ground crew about how liftoff went. You need to keep your speech focused, as you only have two minutes and need to report what's happening. Be sure to keep it limited to the facts, and details about the facts.

Role: Astronaut, headed to the moon

Audience: Space Command crew on the ground

Format: Speech

Topic: How liftoff went

Strong Verb: report
