R.A.F.T.S. PROMPT

You are Rufus, the dog who lives next door to Ruby and her brothers. Little do they know that while they sleep, you sneak over to spend the night in their little red fort! It's the only way to get a good night's sleep, as your family's cat, Riley, takes up the whole couch AND snores! In a letter to Ruby, share the story of what the sleepless nights have been like for you...until you found her fabulous fort, that is. Then request that she allow you to add _____ (something you'd like) to the fort. Be sure to include a sketch of what the fort will look like with this new addition.
