You are a slice of the yummiest, gooiest, most flavorful cheese imaginable. You've been in the refrigerator for a long time, so you are very excited on the day you're pulled out for a delicious grilled cheese sandwich. Unfortunately, you can tell that the kid chef making the sandwich doesn't really know what else should go in it. You know grilled cheese sandwiches inside and out, so you speak up and tell the child the facts of what he or she needs to gather to make a dream sandwich called "____." Be sure to add a surprise ingredient to make the sandwich extra special!
