R.A.F.T.S. PROMPT

You are Dr. Change, a lepidopterist (someone who studies butterflies). You write a weekly newsletter about bugs, and you wrote an article about metamorphosis. You just received a text from a curious cricket. He read your article but still doesn't understand what metamorphosis is and asks for an explanation that is clear and focused. Gladly, you text back with a useful definition. Write what Cricket texted and your reply.
