

Go-Along Page 1

It's Just My Opinion

1. Work with a partner and recall the different opinions from the story. Put a check mark by the opinion you think best represents the overall claim of the book.

- ☐ Chicken Little is not little. She's petite.
- ☐ Chicken Little is not afraid of anything.
- ☐ It would be ridiculous to think the sky was falling.
- ☐ I am a blanket of gas held by the pull of gravity. I do not fall.
- ☐ Stuff falls from the sky all the time!
- ☐ Hey, everybody, the sky is falling!
- ☐ This is clucky chaos! Utter hen-demonium!
- ☐ Don't believe everything you hear.
- ☐ I'm fine. I told you I wasn't afraid of anything.

2. There is one item above that is a fact, not an opinion. Cross it out.

3. Is there one statement from this list that you'd name as the claim or the most important idea that drives the story line? Put a check next to it. Then explain why you selected it below.

If you run out of space, continue your work on the back of the page.
