R.A.F.T.S. PROMPT

You are Chicken Little and the Sky. In a dialogue between you, offer your opinions about how this “The sky is falling” mess got started and how it finally got cleared up. Discuss how easily the chickens got confused and, as a result, why they acted the way they did. (Be sure to represent the chickens’ point of view, too.) Use evidence as much as possible, and use details to make your opinions about this event believable.
