R.A.F.T.S. for Write-On Page 2

R.A.F.T.S. PROMPT

You are Henley. Since writing is an easier way for you to enjoy words and language than reading, you decide to share your thoughts with others who may feel differently. You decide to share the reasons you love writing on a motivational poster your teacher can hang in the classroom or library. State your claim that writing is joyful—just like reading. Back it up with examples and evidence that will convince other students to think positively about writing!

Role: Henley
