R.A.F.T.S. PROMPT

You are a fourth-grade student. In a letter to Malcolm Mitchell, author of My Very Favorite Book in the Whole Wide World, assure him that by sharing his very personal story, he has made a big difference to young people everywhere. Let him know that he has inspired many readers to keep trying and finding resources and people to help them through their own personal rough spots. Use logic to build your case for why his book should be available for all young people to read.
