R.A.F.T.S. PROMPT

You are the brain. Involuntary and voluntary functions have been squabbling about which is the most important. In a four-part cartoon strip, feature one involuntary and one voluntary function and make clear to them why, from your perspective, both are important. Add other involuntary and voluntary functions to your cartoon if you wish.

Role: The brain

Audience: one involuntary and one voluntary function

Format: cartoon strip

Topic: why both functions are important

Strong Verb: make clear
