R.A.F.T.S. PROMPT

You are a teenager who has done quite a bit of babysitting. Lately, many of your friends are asking for tips and advice so they can babysit to earn a little extra cash, too. You decide to write down what you've learned (sometimes the hard way) and put it into a booklet for others to read and appreciate. Pick a main topic for prospective babysitters from Go-Along Page 2, and write one page of your booklet as a starting place. Try to convince your reader through evidence and examples that your advice is credible.
