

Go-Along Page 3

Gigi's House

1. As your teacher pages back through The One Day House, record how Wilson, Gigi, and members of the community view the house differently.

Wilson's Point of View	Gigi's Point of View	Other Characters
Paint the house orange and yellow like the sun.	Today, you are all the sunshine I need.
Fix the windows so she can open them wide and feel the breeze.		Ice-cream man: Fresh air is good for the soul.
Build a fence around the yard so a dog can keep you company.	Today...
Fix the stairs so Gigi can sit on the balcony and see forever.		Neighbor and friend:
Fix the chimney so you can make a fire to keep you cozy.	Today...
Fix the roof on Gigi's house to keep out the wind and snow.		Librarian:
Fix your piano so you can play music again.	Today...
Plant a garden for Gigi so she can be surrounded by flowers.		Wilson's teacher:

2. In your opinion, how important is the house to the setting of the book?
1 (low) 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 (high)
3. In your opinion, how important is the house to the plot of the book?
1 (low) 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 (high)
4. In your opinion, how important is the house to the characters in the book?
1 (low) 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 (high)
5. What is your average score? (3–30 points) _____