You are a grandparent who also happens to be a farmer. Your grandchildren live far away but want to know more about some of the plants you grow on your farm. You've decided to draw them a diagram, illustrating the parts of a plant. Last time the grandkids came to visit, they gobbled up all the peas you were growing! That will be the perfect place to start—with a diagram of a pea plant! Who knows? Maybe they'll decide to work on the farm with you when they grow up!
