Name _____ Date _____

Central Idea

Directions:

1. In the left-hand column, list a central idea for the text you read.

2. On the right-hand side, in your own words, use text evidence from beginning to the end to show how the author developed the central idea.

Title: _____ Author: _____

CENTRAL IDEA	TEXT EVIDENCE How Author Developed the Central Idea

Name _____   Date _____

Finding Themes

Directions:

1. In the left-hand column, list the text evidence, in your own words, that enabled you to identify two themes.

2. On the right-hand side, write the theme.

Title: _____   Author: _____

TEXT EVIDENCE	THEME

Name _____ Date _____

How and Why a Character/Person Changes

❧ ⌘ ↝

Directions:

1. Think of an event or events, a decision, feelings, interactions with others, or settings that changed a person or character.

2. Summarize the element(s) in the text that created the change in the person or character.

3. Clearly show the change in the person or character and show how what happened in the text caused the change(s).

Title: _____ Author: _____

TEXT EVIDENCE THAT CAUSED A CHANGE	THE CHANGES

Making Logical Inferences:

Person's or Character's Personality Traits

❧

Directions:

1. In the left-hand column, write the text details in your own words that lead you to a logical inference about a person or character. Refer to setting, dialogue, interactions, inner thoughts, events, and/or settings.

2. Write your inference in the right-hand column.

Title of Text: _____

Person or Character's Name _____

TEXT DETAILS	LOGICAL INFERENCE