There's a Bull Ant in the Bedroom

Adam Wallace & Shane McG

'There's a bull ant in the bedroom, and it bit me on the bum.
I screamed and flicked it out of there, and then it bit my mum!'

The bull ant in the bedroom is not the only creature causing chaos. Wild animals have taken over the entire house!

Luckily, I know
just what to do with them...

There's a piranha in the pool, and I really want to swim.

But I know that it will bite me just as soon as I dive in.

It's obvious that fishing is the thing to do instead.

Now the piranha's in a fishbowl,
swimming,
in my sister's bed.

Another Book About Bears

Laura & Philip Bunting

Ever wondered why there are so many books about bears? Discover the grizzly truth in this bear-all account.

Bears are tired. Sick and tired. And just when they are in the middle of something really good—like sleeping, snoozing or napping—too many storybooks mean they have to stop what they are doing—that is—sleeping, and get up and be part of a story. Every story. Well, the bears have had enough. They are going on strike.

This hilarious book looks at some alternatives for all the parts bears play in stories. But what sort of animal could be . . . just right?

The Little Ghost Who Lost Her Boo!

Elaine Bickell & Raymond McGrath

"I've lost my boo! I've lost my boo!

Where has it gone? What will I do?"

Little Ghost has lost her boo, but she is determined to get it back so she heads out to look for it.

On her night-time hunt she meets a number of her friends, Owl, Pigeon, Rooster and Cow, and asks each of them if they've heard her Boo. None of them have but they are all very kind and offer Little Ghost their own sound instead. But none are as good as her own scary boo so Little Ghost keeps looking. In the end, it's the reader who finds it for her!

Three

Stephen Michael King

One, two, three . . .

One, two, three . . .

Di Walker

Every Thing We Keep

Di Walker

How do you leave a family behind?

Trailing her orange suitcase, and a heart full of worry, thirteen-year-old Agatha is about to go home. She has been in and out of foster care for years now, but her latest new life – lived with naval precision with Katherine, Lawson and their dog, Chief – has proved to be the salvation that Agatha needed. She has new friends, a sense of place, and space to breathe.

But when the social worker says it's time to return to her parents, her world comes crashing down. "Home" has always made her anxious and ashamed ...and she can't understand why now she is being forced to go back.

Is it possible to find a way to love her parents without having to live with them?

From Di Walker comes a story of hope and compassion.

Hayley Lawrence

Scarlett was gifted with beauty. But beauty can be taken in a day, in a single moment, by one car fire. Now permanently disfigured, Scarlett has become a smudge in her perfect world. She can see only one acceptable solution: to escape the modern world for Matilda Mountain, which is desolate, isolated, forlorn. Perfect.

But mountains are not always as lonely as they appear. And unexpected friendships can be found in the wilderness. Friendships that challenge her ideas about perfection and her place in the world. Can Scarlett break free from the confines of her beauty-obsessed culture to discover who she is beyond the layers of her skin?

The beautiful girl? The scarred girl? Or the girl who survived?
