

Harry Potter

Things-That-Must-Not-Be-Named

Most wizards know not to say the word “Voldemort” aloud. In this game, there are lots of words you’re not allowed to say, so you’ll have to think of other descriptive words instead. To play, read the word on your card to yourself. Then, try to describe that word to your family or virtual classroom without using any of the forbidden words listed on your card. Good luck!
