

LaRue's Top 10 American Road Trip Attractions!

All Ike LaRue wanted last summer was a cruise to Mexico. Instead, he got tricked into a cross-country road trip with his neighbor's spiteful cats! Luckily, he discovered lots of fun attractions along the way. If your family is on the road this summer, here are some great stops to liven up any trip!

1. World's Largest Ball of Twine: Two different towns claim to have the largest ball of twine in the world. Visit both (in Cawker City, KS, and Darwin, MN) to compare for yourself.
2. The Grand Canyon: One of the Seven Natural Wonders of the World, there's nothing quite as awe-inspiring as the Grand Canyon. Ike pays a visit on his trip across America; you could too!
3. Bigfoot Discovery Museum: Head to Felton, CA, for fun activities and to view all the evidence collected so far about the quest to capture the elusive Sasquatch.
4. Gatorland: If you're looking for the alligator capital of the world, look no further than this reptilian theme park and wildlife preserve in Orlando, FL.
5. Cadillac Ranch: Just outside of Amarillo, TX, an eccentric millionaire planted ten spray-painted cars facedown on a dry, desert plain.
6. Niagara Falls: Head to Niagara Falls, NY, to gasp at this spectacular natural wonder. Then, for a closer look, take a boat ride to experience the view from below.
7. Roswell: Roswell, NM, is home to the annual Roswell UFO Festival, as well as year-round attractions dedicated to the search for proof of alien visitors among us.
8. Paul Bunyan's Birthplace: Bemidji, MN, claims to be the birthplace of legendary giant Paul Bunyan and his big blue ox, Babe. Charming roadside statues of the pair were erected here in 1937.
9. Meteor Crater: Near Flagstaff, AZ, you can check out exhibits about this meteor's impact or just peer down into the hole, 550 feet deep and 2.4 miles wide!
10. Dinosaur Park: Be like Ike and stop by this park in Rapid City, SD, where five life-size models of the scaly beasts are ready to greet (and maybe eat) visitors.
