

Paul Revere's Modern Ride

The third Monday in April is Patriots' Day, which commemorates the Battle of Lexington and Concord on April 19, 1775. It also honors the midnight ride of Paul Revere when Revere rode through town warning the colonists that the Red Coats were coming! If Paul Revere had to warn people of this impending danger today, how do you think he would do it? Research Revere's ride and rewrite the events of that night as if they happened in this day and age.
