

Find out how much wacky stuff you know about the United States. Can you answer these questions?

MT

The area north of Missoula, Montana, is known to be very "loony." Why?

ID

What is unique about the state seal of Idaho?

UT

The city in the middle of Utah is named Levan. Can you guess why?

AZ

The Arizona state bird and the Arizona state flower both contain this word.

QUESTIONS

NV

On July 7, 2007, the Flamingo Hotel in Las Vegas, Nevada, held 77 weddings. A record number of weddings in one day. Why did they do that?

CA

If you were hiding from vampires, in which California city should you stay?

OR

When you are driving in Oregon, you can't do this by yourself.

Go on, take a guess. Give up?

The answers are on the next page in easy-to-find matching colors.

WA

What is made inside the Boeing plant, the world's largest building, in Everett, Washington?

AK

Every year, people swarm to Talkeetna for this unusual, if not a little smelly, celebration.

HI

What makes the Hawaiian alphabet so different?

AK

The Moose Dropping Festival.

There are even people who sell moose poop earrings.

OR

Pump your own gas.

CA

Gilroy.

It's the garlic capitol of the world.

WA

Airplanes.
The building is 4.3 million square feet.

ANSWERS

NV

Many people find the number 7 lucky. The date of July 7, 2007, is also written 7/7/07.

They probably had 7-layer wedding cakes, too.

UT

Levan spelled backward is Navel. It's the middle of the state.
Utah's belly button.

HI

It only has 12 letters:
A, E, I, O, U,
H, K, L, M, N, P, W.

AZ

"Cactus." The Cactus Wren and the Saguaro Cactus Blossom.
They like cactus.

ID

It is the only seal, of all 50 U.S. state seals, to be designed by a woman.

MT

It's home to the largest U.S. population of the Common Nesting Loon. (That's a type of bird.)

